DISCLAIMER

This document, OWNER CONTROLLED INSURANCE PROGRAM (OCIP)—Contractual Provisions, is provided by SEWUP in an effort to outline the necessary insurance coverage that must be provided to contractors of all tiers during the bidding process.

While we are confident that the conclusions and suggestions contained in this document will help you to identify all necessary insurance information for inclusion in your bid documents, we do not suggest that utilizing this document will eliminate all risk during the process.

SEWUP, a California Joint Powers Authority, is not a law firm. We do not give legal advice and neither this document, nor the documents accompanying any presentation should be construed as legal advice. Districts are advised to consult with their own attorney for a determination of their legal rights, contractual responsibilities and liabilities, including the interpretation of any statute or regulation, or its application to client's business activities.

As this document also outlines several responsibilities of SEWUP related to the OCIP, any changes or omissions to this document should be communicated to SEWUP JPA (contact below) prior to inclusion in any bid documents.

A copy of the final bid documents incorporating this insurance information is required by SEWUP JPA and should be forwarded to your OCIP Administrator.

Failure to utilize this document as provided may change or nullify the terms of the OCIP insurance program and services.

Please address any changes, omissions, questions or concerns to your SEWUP OCIP Administrator or to:
